South African Bass Angling Association Indemnity

I hereby confirm and acknowledge that I am completely aware of all the risks involved with the sport of bass angling as well as the dangers present when there is lightning and thunderstorm activity in the vicinity.

I indemnify the South African Bass Angling Association, host of specific Tournaments and its appointed officials from any and all claims, notions, suits procedures, cost, expenses, damages and liabilities, including lawyers and or medical fees resulting from my participating in bass angling organized by the above organization and its appointed officials, in general and lightning or storm damage in particular.

I undertake to participate in accordance with the SABAA and FIPS Ed rules and instructions issued by the officials

I confirm that I have read and fully understand the above Indemnity Declaration.
